From the Office of the Mayor
New City, State

To Whom It May Concern:

Dear Team,

Thank you for your service in the pursuit of securing our city against the forces of corruption, evil, and hacking. Our world is becoming so much more online, and cyberspace is in constant need of monitoring and defending. I shudder to think of a world without people like you.

The people of New City are forever in your debt. My office is in your debt. Thank you for your service. Your cyber-service.

Kindest Regards,
Mayor Jenkins
